Certificate

This is to certify that Consumer Unity & Trust Society, Jaipur has been working in the area of rural development for the past many years in Rajasthan. Their work includes consumer protection in rural areas, training/capacity building for policy makers, IEC activities, children's collectives, women's empowerment, education, etc.

In many of its endeavours, the Government of Rajasthan has supported CUTS. In the year 2013-14 under a project entitled 'Priyadarshani', the Department of Women & Child Development supported CUTS to enhance understanding and improving capacity of Self Help Group members. Earlier in 2003-04, the Government of Rajasthan supported CUTS in implementing the District Poverty Initiative Programme in Mahua block to improve living standards and socio-economic status of the poor. The Government also supported CUTS in 2007-08 in consumer awareness programmes.
